

Wynn Nightlife Announces 2017 Las Vegas Resident DJs

Days after Wynn Nightlife announced an exclusive three-year residency with The Chainsmokers at its XS and Encore Beach Club properties, the entertainment company unveils its full list of Las Vegas residents for the 2017 calendar year.

Coming back to Wynn from 2016 are Alesso, A-Trak, David Guetta, Dillon Francis, DJ Snake, Flosstradamus, Major Lazer, Ookay, RL Grime, Skrillex, Slander, Virgil Abloh, and Yellow Claw. Joining the roster in 2017 are Alison Wonderland, Duke Dumont, Dimitri Vegas & Like Mike, Robin Schulz, Marshmello, and more.

"Wynn Nightlife has always had a strong commitment to providing the best entertainment experience possible," Wynn Nightlife Executive Vice President and Managing Partner Alex Cordova is quoted in a press release. "We are happy that so many incredible artists are returning - many have been with us five, six or seven years - and are excited to welcome the newly-signed residents. With our carefully curated roster, we provide the most stylistically diverse music lineup in town, positioning us as the leader in Las Vegas nightlife entertainment."

Wynn announced the full DJ roster in the video below, which features fresh and highly-stylized photographs of each DJ in resident shot by Tyler Shields for the company's new campaign We Are Wynn Nightlife.
