Wynn Las Vegas Announces DJ Residencies for 2017

by Newsdesk | Jan 9, 2017 2:09pm

Wynn Las Vegas has kicked off its We Are Wynn Nightlife brand campaign with the release of the 2017 resident DJ roster for its world-renowned nightclubs: XS, Surrender, Intrigue and day club Encore Beach Club. The biggest news of the announcement was a three-year residency agreement with three-time Grammy-nominated pop duo, The Chainsmokers. The announcement was released in a video (seen below), featuring photography by acclaimed contemporary photographer, Tyler Shields.

New residents include Alison Wonderland, Brillz, Cedric Gervais, Chuckie, Dimitri Vegas & Like Mike, Duke Dumont, EDX, Getter, Laidback Luke, Lost Kings, MAKJ, Nicky Romero, Robin Schulz, Stafford Brothers, and Sultan + Shepard.

Artists extending their residencies after a successful 2016 season include Alesso, A-Trak, David Guetta, Dillon Francis, Diplo, DJ Snake, Flosstradamus, Major Lazer, Marshmello, Ookay, RL Grime, Skrillex, Slander, Virgil Abloh, and Yellow Claw.

"Wynn Nightlife has always had a strong commitment to providing the best entertainment experience possible," said Alex Cordova, Wynn Nightlife Executive Vice President and Managing Partner. "We are happy that so many incredible artists are returning — many have been with us five, six or seven years — and are excited to welcome the newly-signed residents. With our carefully curated roster, we provide the most stylistically diverse music lineup in town, positioning us as the leader in Las Vegas nightlife entertainment."
